AWA has submitted an application to participate in the 4th edition of the "Best Bahraini Volunteer Project." This year the award is open for the expats and non-Bahraini charity and voluntary organizations. Good luck, girls!

From Your AWA President ...

Dear Members...

AWA would like to welcome all our members back after this long summer vacations. I hope that everyone enjoyed their family time.

AWA will celebrate its 44th Anniversary next Monday September 10th. Amazingly our General Meeting will coincide with the same day that seven American Women met at the home of Loucile Crompton on September 10, 1974 at 9:30 am and decided to give back to the community in Bahrain. We will honor Peggy Cook, Cecilia Johnson, Carol Beth Gore, Anita House, Virginia Lavender, Loucile Crompton and Sally Jolly. AWA will continue for many years to come with their legacy and original mission of promoting charity, friendship and cultural understanding among women in Bahrain.

Our Executive Board had its first fall meeting last Monday; we want to assure you that any single detail is taken care of. There are many events coming up soon.

AWA is proud of Craft Group, these amazing ladies were working nonstop during the whole summer in preparation for Snowflake Fair coming up on November.

We encourage all our member to be a volunteer for CTT, without this big Fundraising event AWA could not support all the charities that are counting on our annual donation. So, please contact Isi Brown.

AWA is looking for chairpersons to fill positions in our activities: photography group and our CTT Lucky Draw group.

Welcome back to Bahrain and to AWA.

Angela de Greef
